THE NEW ROADS MOVEMENT. The Lynchburg Advance yesterday printed an offer of $5,000 for a macadam road from Washington to Lynchburg, via Manuseas, Orange and Charlottes ville, which has been made by W. G. Newman, a New York broker and capttalist, whose country home is at Somer-ast, Orange country. The offer from Mr. Newman reads: "Get Horseshoe Robinson', a novel by Kennedy, and see the road he used from Orange through Lynch's Ferry or Lynchburg and you can get $5,000 from me to help build the road."

In Spottsylvania county November 2 has been set as the day for the people of that county to decide whether they want good roads between Washington and CAUGHT BY BIG FLYWHEEL Frank Neal, a 19 year old youth, who works at the Richmond branch of the American Locomotive Works, had s hair raising experience yesterday morn ing Young Neal is a machinist and was working near a huge flywheel when his clothing became entangled in it. Ba fore he had time to real 23 his perilous position he was jarked from his feet and hurled around and around with every revolution of the immense wheel. His giant captor had perhaps made a dozen revolutions before the youth's clothing became disentangled. There was a sudden parting of the clothing, and the youth was buried forward a distance of 20 feet. Nesl landed in a hesp on a pile of iron and junk. The young man suffered many bruises, but not a single bone was broken. Unless he is internally injured he will recover.

JOINT RESOLUTION proposing amendment to section 50 of article 4 of the Constitution of Virginia, and providing for publishing said amendment, and certifying the same to the next general assembly.

Approved March 12, 1908. 1. Resolved by the house of delegates, the senate concurring (a majority of the members elected to so the house agreeing thereto). That the following amendment to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same is hereby, proposed and referred to the general assembly to be chosen at the next general election of members of the house of delegates for its concurrence, in conformity with the provisions of section fifty of article four of said Constitution, namely. of said Constitution, namely: Strike out from the Constitution of Virginia, section fifty, article four, which is in the following words: Section 50. No law shall be enacted except by bill. A bill may original nate in either house, to be approved or rejected by the other, or may be amended by either, with the concurrence of the other.

No bill shall become a law unless prior to its passage it has been—

(a) Referred to a committee of each house, considered by such committee in session, and reported;
(b) Printed by the house in which it originated, prior to its passage

(c) Read at length on three different calendar days in each house;

and unless,

(d) A yea and nay vote has been taken in each house upon its final passage, the names of the members voting for and against entered on the journal, and a majority of those voting, which shall include at least two-fifths of the members elected to each house, recorded in the affirmative.

And only in the manner required in sub-division (d) of this section shall an amendment to a bill by one house be concurred in by the other, or a conference report be adopted by either house, or either house discharge a committee from the consideration of a bill and consider the same as if reported: provided, that the printing and reading, or either, required in sub-divisions (b) and (c) of this section, may be dispensed with in a bill to codify the laws of the State, and in any case of emergency, by a vote of four-fifths of the members voting in each house taken by the yeas and nays, the names of the members voting for and against, entered on the journal: provided further, that no bill which creates or established a new office, or which creates, continues or revives a debt or charge or makes, continues or revives any appropriation of public or trust money or property, or releases, or discharges, or commutes any claim or demand of or makes, continues or revives any appropriation of public or trust money or property, or releases, or discharges, or commutes any claim or demand of the State, or which imposes, continues or revives a tax, shall be passed except by the affirmative vote of the majority of all the members elected to each house, the vote to be by the yeas and nays, and the names of the members voting for and against, entered on the journal. Every law imposing, continuing or reviving a tax shall specifically state such tax, and no law shall be construed as so stating such tax, which requires a reference to any other law or any other tax. The presiding officer of each house shall, in the presence of the house over which he presides, sign every bill which has been passed by both houses and duly enrolled. Immediately before this is done, all other business being suspended, the title of the bill shall be publicly read. The fact of the signing shall be entered on the journal.

Section 50. No law shall be enacted except by bill. A bill may originate in either house to be approved or rejected by the other, or may be amended by either, with the concurrence of the other.

No bill shall become a law unless prior to its passage it has been—

(a) Referred to a committee of each house, considered by such committee in session, and reported;

Delived by the house in which it originated prior to its passage

(b) Printed by the house in which it originated prior to its passage

(c) Read by title on three different calendar days in each house and read at length at least once in each house; and unless
(d) A yea and nay vote has been taken in each house upon its final passage, the names of the members voting for and against, entered on the journal, and a majority of those voting, which shall include at least two-fifths of the members elected to each house, recorded in the
